King Edward Professor of Music in the University of London. Organist Emeritus of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Warden: BENJAMIN DALE, F.R.A.M., Hon. R.C.M.

The Junior School is open to pupils under sixteen years of age who, by reason of their general education, are unable to take the full curriculum of ordinary studentship. Every effort is made to arrange lessons and classes to meet individual requirements, and the Principal will be glad to discuss courses of study, by appointment.

SUBJECTS TAUGHT.

Individually—Pianoforte, Organ, Violin, Viola, Violoncello, Harp,
Wind Instruments, Elocution and Dancing.

In Class —Singing, Elements of Music, Aural Training, Harmony,
Composition, Percussion Band, etc.

Ordinary Curriculum.

1. Principal Study: two individual lessons per week of half an hour.
2. Elements of Music or Harmony (30 minutes per week in class).
3. Aural Training (30 minutes per week in class).

FEES.

Full course, as above £8 8*s. od.* per term.

Additional Principal subject (one individual lesson per week of thirty minutes) £3 3*s. od.* per term.

The entry fee is £1 1*s. od.*, which, together with the completed entry form, should be sent to the Secretary. On receipt of this, a notice will be posted a few days prior to the entrance examination, informing the candidate of his or her appointment with the Principal.

No pupil over sixteen years of age will be allowed to remain in the Junior School, except to complete the Academic Year in which he or she attained that age. Pupils from the Junior School who proceed to the Senior School will be required to pay a further entrance fee of £1 1*s. od.*

THE ACADEMIC YEAR.

The Academic Year extends from the end of September to the end of July, and is divided into three terms, Michaelmas, Lent and Midsummer, with intervening Vacations at Christmas and Easter.

ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS.

Towards the end of the Midsummer Term all pupils who have attended throughout the Academic Year are required to undergo an Examination in each subject of their Course. Certificates will be awarded to those pupils whose progress is deemed by the Principal to merit the award. Those who have not attended 75 per cent. of their lessons and classes throughout the Academic Year will be ineligible for these awards.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT.

All Pupils are under the care of Mrs. Rawlins, the Lady Superintendent, to whom they can refer at any time.

RESTAURANT.

Luncheons, teas and light refreshments are obtainable at moderate prices at all times during Academy hours, the arrangements for the Restaurant being under the supervision of the House Committee.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Pupils in the Junior School will be placed under Teachers who have special experience in the instruction of children, and their allotment to Teachers is left absolutely to the discretion of the Principal.

Pupils are not accepted for a shorter period than one term, and at least a half-term's notice of leaving is required ; failing this the fees for a half-term will be payable.

The Committee of Management reserves the right of refusing the entry or re-entry of any pupil of the Junior School, without giving any reasons for such refusal.

All Pupils have to sign a form agreeing to keep the regulations as are set out on the back thereof.

Pupils in the Junior School are not Students of the Academy, nor are they entitled to the privileges which such studentship confers.

No pupil shall be allowed to undertake any public engagement without the sanction of the Principal.

Pupils of the Junior School not being classed as Students of the Academy are not debarred from competing for scholarships for which they are otherwise eligible.

Pupils and ex-pupils of the Junior School are not allowed to add the letters R.A.M. to their names.

All Pupils must fill in an address voucher provided for that purpose. Also all changes of Address must be immediately notified. Failure to comply with this requirement will, in all cases, render the pupil liable for any consequences which may ensue.
